

West Virginia Medicare Advantage Beneficiaries Receive Better Value and Spend 29% Less than Beneficiaries in Medicare FFS

39% (172,096) of Medicare beneficiaries in West Virginia were enrolled in Medicare Advantage (MA) in 2020.

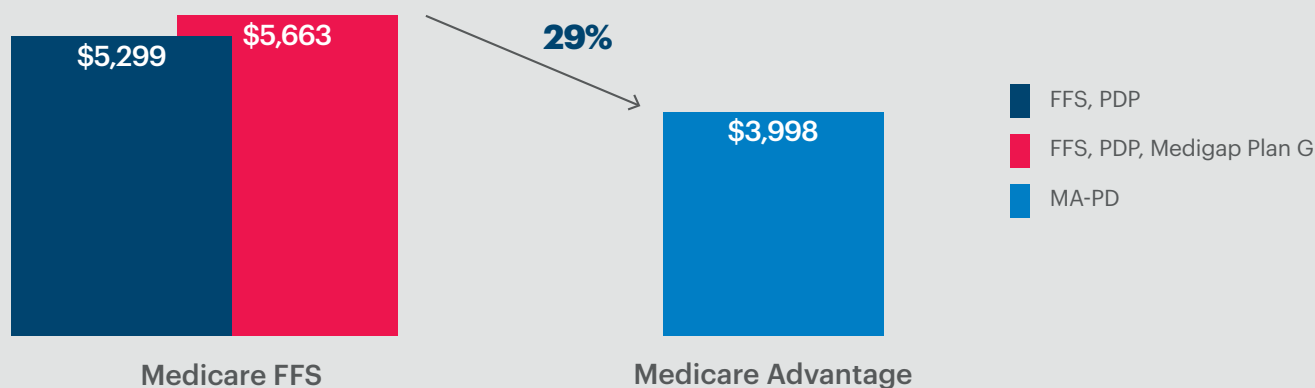

The average Medicare Advantage and Prescription Drug (MA-PD) plan beneficiary in West Virginia spends:

$1,301 Less than a beneficiary in West Virginia who enrolls in traditional Medicare Fee-For-Service (FFS) and a prescription drug plan (PDP)

$1,665 Less than a beneficiary in West Virginia who also purchases Medigap Plan G as supplemental coverage for medical out-of-pocket costs

Annual Health Care Spending by Comparable Medicare Beneficiaries in West Virginia, 2020

Within All Age Groups, West Virginia's Beneficiaries in MA-PD Spend Less than those in Medicare FFS

$1,110 to $1,453 Less than a 65-year old FFS
beneficiary in average health

$1,656 to $2,004 Less
than an 85-year old FFS
beneficiary in average health

In addition to the dental, vision, and hearing benefits typically offered, the average MA-PD beneficiary in West Virginia receives $167 in annual supplemental benefits, such as care coordination, meals and non-emergency transportation, not offered by Medicare FFS.

Sources, methodology, and results for other states and on a national basis are available at: <http://www.uhg.com/MA-cost-savings-research>.